Lynn Trogdon

Marked by Grace – Growing in Joy

“Lynn is a compassionate, insightful woman with a quiet confidence in her Lord. Her varied life experiences have afforded her wisdom and clarity in many of today's most difficult challenges. She has a passion to inject Truth into the lives of women who need Jesus and to those who need to take their faith to a deeper level of commitment.”

Walking through life without a strong foundation is like trying to step on a moving sidewalk without handrails. It's way too easy to fall. Lynn learned through hard times that being well-grounded in the Bible and a rich relationship with Jesus saves women from sliding down the slippery slope to despair and darkness.

Passionate about the power of the Word of God to change lives, Lynn left behind a twenty-year career in interior design to focus on encouraging women in their walk with God. She has participated in and led women's Bible studies for eighteen years and serves on the Women's Leadership Team at her church. Lynn's work with a local pregnancy care center has deepened her insight and compassion for women in seemingly impossible situations.

She and Lanny, her husband of twenty years, understand the joys and difficulties of parenting a blended family. Their five children, including one with Down Syndrome, have created a family life packed with every age, stage and ability. They battle the deer and rabbits for the right to garden in their own backyard and spend as much time as possible with their precious granddaughter.

A Cracked Mirror or Wedding Bells?

Relationships are hard. At least that's been Lynn's experience. In spite of, or more truthfully, because of her history of divorce, a blended family, and restoration, Lynn challenges women to consider the question: Is marriage obsolete or is it still relevant in today's world? Women will:

- Explore the biblical purpose of marriage
- Be challenged to hold on in the hard times—because they will surely come!
- Welcome the growth and transformation that relationships inevitably create

“Lynn has the ability to sit with someone and listen to them in all their honesty and not pass judgment. To possibly show them another option or picture with a calm emotion that helps to soothe their raging spirit.”

See to it that no one misses the grace of God...

Hebrews 12:15a

“Lynn sees God in every moment. God is alive and active in her life and she sees it, recognizes it, appreciates it, and learns from it. It is not just head knowledge about God. Or just emotions or feelings. It is a combination of the two that makes her ministry so effective, so just Right.”
